

St Lucia
April 2007

Ahhhh... tranquility

A long planned family vacation to celebrate Mom & Dad's 50th
wedding anniversary
and 70th birthdays.

What could be better than a week
on the beach in paradise?

Clearly we are having WAAAAY too much fun!

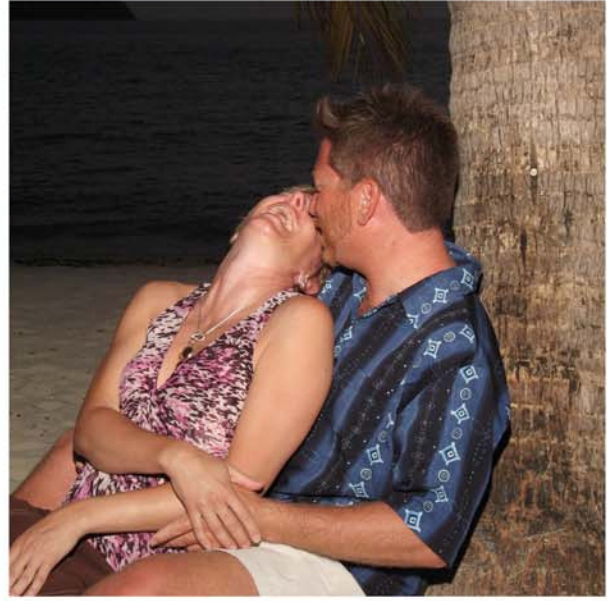

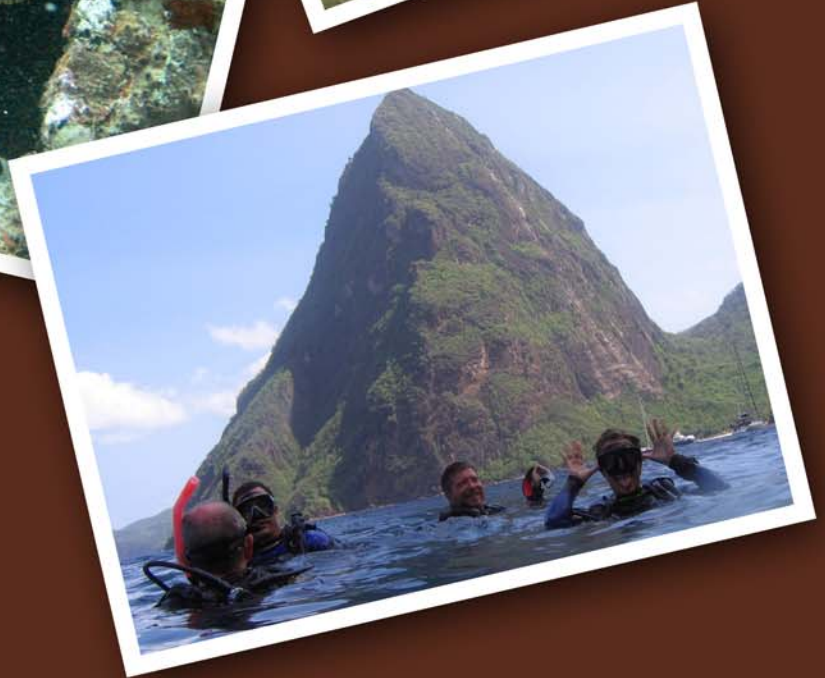

Mark sang "Can You Feel the Love Tonight" and everyone got in on the dancing!

Massages on the end of the pier at sunset. Now really, does it get ANY better???

Diving off The Pitons on the South end of the island.

Swing dancing
on the safety stop!

Sailing vessels of all kinds... including the kids who rigged
up a carpet and bedsheet
for their sail

And the flag guy who visits all the sailboats to offer his wares!

More sailing vessels!

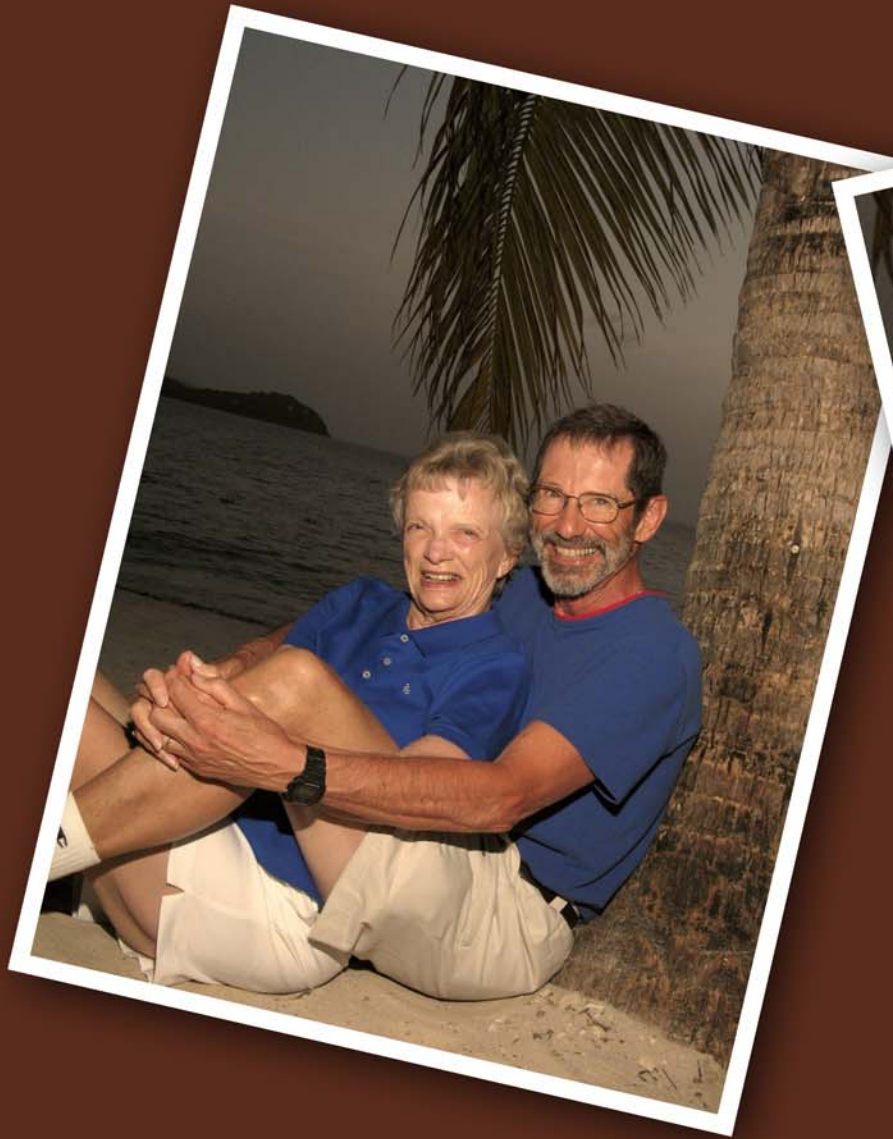

Mom, Dad, Karen & Chris
went dolphin watching while we were diving

Morning coffee on the balcony with all kinds of local wildlife
